Westerly Boy Enters Naval Academy

Langdon D. Pickering Has Passed Physical Examination -Three Men Injured by Falling Derrick-Firemen Honor Their Dead-White Rocks Defeat Stonington -Westerly Wins from Wakefield-Recent Marriages

Laitsdon Dominique Pickering ef Wyster's, who resides with his grand-mother, Mrs. Harriet Smith Langdon, in the Avendale section, has successfully passed the mental and physical examinations, and entered Annapolis avail secréemy.

examinations, and entered Annapolis naval academy.

Midshipman Pickering was appointed by Representative Capron as alternate at the time he appointed Donald Dunn of Westerly as principal. Mr. Dunn is the son of Commander Howard O. Dunn, U. S. N., and comes from a long line of naval officers. He is a young man of splendid physical appearance and passed the mental examination in excellent shape, but in the physical tests it was found that he has a defect of the heart, which barred him from the academy.

Midshipman Pickering is a son of Joseph Winslow Pickering is a son of Joseph Winslow Pickering and Carolyn Belle Pickering, daughter of Mra. Harriet Smith Langdon, From a child the ambition of the elder son, Nelson Winslow Pickering, was for a naval career, and in 1904 he passed the examination and entered the naval academy. He was born in Boston, 1887, His brother, Langdon Dominique Pickering, was born in Boston September 21, 1891.

One of the large derieks at the Newall granite quarre in the Niantic section of Westerly fell Saturday morning and work was suspended for the balance of the day. While a large block of granite was being lifted one of the wire ray ropes parted about of the wire guy ropes parted about midway and the derrick swerved and then fell. Most of the quarrymen es-caped, but three among them, Italians, the increased strain, and all the other guy ropes fell in a tangled mass with the derrick, which was one of the largest in the quarry.

Besides Poncera, Subinock and Wilson, several other workmen received minor outs and bruises. The injured men were attended by Drs. James Lewis and Dr. Benoit Sweet.

As the break in the wire rope guy was several feet from the ground, and not in contact with anything that would occasion wear, and as the derrick was not overloaded, the real cause of the socident could not be explained. The guy wires were supposed to be of standard test and strength.

The second Sunday in June is designated as Firemen's Memorial day, in Rhode Island, and is observed by all organizations connected with the State Firemen's league. Each year the companies of the Westerly fire department honor the memory of their intropid comrades, by special exercises, including the placing of flowers on the graves.

No. 1, and the Cyclone Steam Fire Engine company, No. 2, consolidated, and wearing the regulation uniforms, formed in Union street, and promptly at 2 o'clock, headed by the Westerly band, marched to River Bend cometery, where the memorial exercises were held. The band played a direct, where the memorial exercises were held. The band played a direct, prayer was offered by Rov. F. C. A. Jones, the new paster of the Calvary Baptist church, and vocal selections were rendered by a quartette under the direction of William H. Browning.

Rev. John M. Collins delivered an address of tribute to the brave volunteer firemen, living and dead, and helieved that their good work on earth would be recorded in heaven.

There was singing of patriotic hymna, led by the quartette, and then Rev. Mr. Jones made an interesting address. The singing of patriotic hymns and a selection by the band brought the exercises to an end. A large number assembled in the cemetery to assist pt the impressive ceremonics.

The champion Storingtons of the hode Island-Connecticut baseball eague made a poor showing with the White Rocks at White Rock, Saturday afternoon. The game was won in the very first inning and at no time did the champions show any signs of re-trieving the loss. They played a loose and uninterseit. and uninteresting game and some of their strongest adherents left the ball field discouraged and almost disgusted. It was certainly an off day for Ston-ington.
